10.1.3 A decision by the Discipline Committee, approved by the Board subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the Association in respect of any disciplinary action arising out of his conduct while a Member.

10.2 Notice of such suspension or termination shall be given forthwith to the Member concerned.

10.3 A proprietorship, partnership or corporation whose Membership was suspended or terminated by the Association under Section 10.1 is entitled to have the Membership reinstated upon compliance with the requirements and qualifications prescribed by the Bylaws and Regulations.

10.4 A Member may withdraw from the Association by giving no less than sixty (60) days of notice in writing to the Association.

11. BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMPOSITION

11.1 The Applicants for incorporation shall become the first directors of the Association whose term of office on the Board shall continue until their successors are elected. At the first meeting of Members, the directors then elected shall replace the provisional directors named in the Articles of Continuance of the Association.

11.2 Subject to the articles, the members will elect the directors at the first meeting of the members and at each succeeding annual meeting at which an election of directors is required, and the directors shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring not later than the close of the third annual meeting of the members following the election.

11.3 In the event that a vacancy exists with respect to the Board, the remaining members of the Board shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term of such Director by electing a successor from the Members of the Association.

11.4 Any Director so elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose position he was elected to fill.

11.5 All Directors must be employees, officers, directors, shareholders, partners or owners of Members of the Association. At least one director who is a member of the following sectors shall be elected to the Board:

- Canadian Customs Brokers
- United States Customs Brokers
- Carriers of International Freight
- International Bridge and Tunnel Operators
- AICBA Trade Partners

The balance of the directors to be elected need not be from any particular sector.

11.6 All Directors shall take office at the end of the Annual Meetings of Members at which they were elected or appointed and shall remain in office until the end of the Annual Meeting of Members at which their term expires, when their successors are elected or appointed.

11.7 A Director may be removed from the Board by a majority of the vote of Members, made at a meeting of Members called for the purpose of removing the director.

11.8 Each Director is required to attend one meeting during the year in addition to those held in connection with the Annual Meeting of Members, or that Director will not be eligible for re-election or re-appointment the following year.

11.9 The position of a Director shall be automatically vacated:

11.9.1 If a Director resigns by delivering a written resignation to the President;

11.9.2 A Director is declared by a Medical Doctor or court of law to be lunatic or of unsound mind;

11.9.3 If a Director is in receivership or becomes bankrupt;

11.9.4 If the Member for whom the Director is a representative ceases to be a Member;

11.9.5 If he is absent from more than two consecutive meetings without just cause;

11.9.6 On the death of a Director;

11.9.7 Provided that if any vacancies occur for any reason contained in this section, the Directors may by resolution fill the vacancy as outlined in these Bylaws.

11.10 Notwithstanding any designation attaching to the position of director, the duty and obligation of each director of the Association shall be to act in the best interests of the Members of the Association.

12. DIRECTOR TERM

12.1 Directors shall serve for a term of four (4) years from the date of their election until the Annual Meeting of Members after their election or appointment.

12.2 Where one or more vacancies occur in the membership of the Board, the members remaining in office constitute the Board so long as their number is not less than a quorum of the Board as prescribed in Section 17.7 hereof.

12.3 In the event no quorum of the Board remains in office, a Special General Meeting of Members shall be held forthwith to fill the vacancies on the Board.

13. DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS

13.1 The President shall appoint not less than ninety (90) days in advance of each annual general meeting of members a Nominating Committee composed of four (4) Members of the Association.

13.2 The Nominating Committee shall call for nominations from the list of Member representatives for election to the board of directors, not less than thirty- five (35) days before the date of the annual general meeting of members.

13.3 No nomination shall be valid unless it has been consented to in writing by the person nominated and filed with the Secretary-Treasurer.

13.4 Nominations of Member representatives who have consented in writing to be so nominated for election as directors may be sent by any Member to the Secretary-Treasurer, for transmission to the Nominating Committee, so that they are filed with the Secretary-Treasurer not less than thirty-five (35) days before the date of the annual general meeting of members.

13.5 Only nominations so received shall be entitled to be voted upon by the member representatives.

14. OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

14.1 The officers of the association shall be appointed by the board of directors of the association and shall consist of:

14.2 The officers of the Association shall hold office for four (4) years from the date of appointment or election or until their successors are elected or appointed in their stead.

14.3 In the event that a vacancy occurs with respect to any officer the Board shall fill the vacancy for the balance of the term by electing a successor who is a representative of a Member of the Association in such a manner so as to insure the representation stated in section 14.1.

14.3 All elected Officers must be owners or employees of Members and be principals, directors, officers or persons maintaining senior management positions with Members.

14.4 In absence of a written agreement to the contrary, the board may remove, whether for cause or without cause, any officer of the Corporation. Unless so removed, an officer shall hold office until the earlier of:

- a) the office's successor being appointed,
- b) the officer's resignation,
- c) such officer ceasing to be a director (if necessary qualification of appointment), or
- d) such officer's death.

14.5 If the office of any officer of the corporation shall be or become vacant, the directors may, by resolution, appoint a person to fill such vacancy.

15. OFFICERS RESPONSIBILITIES

15.1 It will be the duty of the President to supervise the conduct of the affairs of the Association, to preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board and to carry out such other duties as directed by the Board.

15.2 In the absence of the President, a Director selected by the Board of Directors to serve for the duration of the President's absence, will assume the duties of the President.

15.3 The Secretary-Treasurer shall have charge of the Association's seal, papers, documents, books and records, including financial books and records, and shall supervise the financial affairs of the Association, record the proceedings of all meetings and cause minutes thereof to be issued as instructed by the Board, keep a roll of Members and their good standing, collect fees, certify documents issued by the Association, and undertake any other duties assigned to him by the Board.

19. COMPLAINTS

19.1 Upon receipt of a complaint in writing with respect to the conduct of any Member, the President may appoint a Discipline Committee to inquire into the complaint.

19.2 If the President does not appoint a Discipline Committee within thirty (30) days of the receipt of a complaint, the Member filing such complaint may request that it be considered by the Board at their next meeting, and the Board shall consider such complaint and may direct the President to appoint a Discipline Committee and the President shall forthwith do so.

19.3 The Board, on its own initiative, shall also have the power at any time or times to direct the President to appoint a Discipline Committee to inquire into the conduct of any Member, and the President shall forthwith do so.

20. DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

20.1 The Discipline Committee shall consist of not less than three (3) and not more than five (5) persons who are Directors.

20.2 The President will select the Chairman of the Discipline Committee.

20.3 The Discipline Committee shall meet at any place or places within Canada or the United States of America upon call of the Chairman of the Committee.

20.4 The quorum shall consist of two-thirds of the members of the Discipline Committee.

21. DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE POWERS

21.1 The Discipline Committee shall forthwith institute an investigation and consider the complaint.

21.2 If the Discipline Committee determines at the completion of such investigation that the complaint is unjustified, it shall report such decision to the Board and the complaint will be deemed to be dismissed.

21.3 If the conduct of the Member shall appear to the Discipline Committee to be improper or prejudicial to the character or welfare of the Association as being contrary to or in violation of anything set out in the Articles of the Corporation, By-laws and Code of Ethics of the Association the Discipline Committee shall give the Member notice thereof, which notice:

21.3.1 shall be delivered personally to such Member or sent to the Member by registered mail at the Member's last address as shown on the records of the Association;

21.3.2 shall state the substance of the allegation against the Member; and

21.3.3 shall state the place and time (not being less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice, as the case may be) at which the Discipline Committee shall conduct a hearing of the said complaint at which time the Member may be heard with respect to the said complaint.

22. DISCIPLINE HEARINGS

22.1 Such hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Discipline Committee in its discretion, but any member thereof who shall not have been present at any meeting of the Discipline Committee at which evidence is taken or at which a Member whose conduct is involved in the hearing is heard shall not participate in the final decision or any further part of the hearing.

22.2 After such hearing the Discipline Committee shall report its findings to the Board which may find the complaint against the Member to be lacking foundation, or if the complaint is made out in whole or in part, may acquit the Member of the said charges, censure the Members suspend or terminate the Member from Membership in the Association.

22.3 No proceedings prior to final determination shall be printed or otherwise made public.

22.4 Notice of any such determination shall be given forthwith to the Member concerned, and if the Member's membership is terminated, the Member thereupon forfeits the rights and privileges of a Member. Any Member whose membership is terminated shall surrender to the Association any certificate of Membership issued by the Association to such Member.

22.5 The disciplinary actions of the Board with respect to decisions regarding complaints against Members shall be deemed to have been confirmed unless a majority of the Members present at the next Annual General Meeting or Special Meeting of Members vote affirmatively to reverse such decision.

23. NOTICES DEEMED DELIVERED

23.1 A notice or document under these Bylaws is sufficiently given, served or delivered by authorized means, if delivered personally, by facsimile, electronic means or by mail.

23.2 Where a notice or document under these Bylaws is sent to a person by mail, addressed to the person at the last address of the person in the records of the Association, there is a presumption that the notice or document is delivered to the person on the fifth day after the day of mailing.

24. INDEMNIFICATION

24.1 No action or other proceeding for damages shall be instituted against the Association, a committee of the Association or a member of a Committee of the Association, or a director or officer, employee, agent or appointee of the Association for any act done in good faith in the performance or intended performance of a duty or in the exercise or the intended exercise of a power under these By-Laws or for any neglect or default in the performance or exercise in good faith of such duty or power.

24.2 Every Member of the Board or a Committee of the Association and every officer and employee of the Association, and his heirs, executors and administrators, and estate and effects, respectively, shall from time to time and at all times, be indemnified and saved harmless out of the funds of the Association, from and against:

24.2.1 all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever that he sustains or incurs in or about any action, suit or proceeding that is brought, commenced or prosecuted against him, for or in respect of any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever, made, done or permitted by him, in or about the execution of the duties of his office; and

24.2.2 all other costs, charges and expenses that he may sustains or incurs in or about or in relation to the affairs thereof, except such costs, charges or expenses as are occasioned by his own willful neglect or default.

24.3 No Director or Officer of the Association shall be liable for acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Director, or Officer of the Association, or for joining in any receipt of act for conformity or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Association through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by the Association or for or on behalf of the Association or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security, in or upon which any of the monies of or belonging to the Association shall be placed or invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortuous acts of any person, partnership or corporation with whom or which any monies, securities or effects shall be lodged or deposited or for any other loss or damage or misfortune whatsoever which may happen in the execution of the duties of his respective office or trust or through his own wrongful and willful act or through his own wrongful or willful neglect or default.

24.4 The Directors for the time being of the Association shall not be under any duty or responsibility in respect of any contract, act or transaction whether or not made, done or entered into in the name of or on behalf of the Association, except such as shall have been submitted to and authorized or approved by the Board.

25. REMUNERATION
